Things in red were added or moved:

We will have the wisemen lesson this year.

We needed two lessons before April 12th so we could put the Easter lesson on the correct date so I split Unit 10 into 2/3. Kept the lost sheep in June because of so much rain we had this year thought it would be best there and moved the first two lessons before the Easter unit so the dates worked.

Thought moving Unit 10 would be better than moving Unit 11 so the petting zoo wouldn't be pushed even later into summer due to the heat.

Let me know if you think it should look different or see any changes.
