THE BATTLE WITH AMALEK FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION – MIDOR LEDOR

- The Biblical book of Esther is set in ancient Persia or Iran. This book isn't just a historical narrative of past events in the life of the people of Israel, but is also a prophetic template of a future battle that will seek to wipe out the people of Israel. How, you might ask? Well let me tell you.
- You see, the events of the book Esther, touch or are connected to events in the beginning of the Bible in Genesis & Exodus, it also touches the events of World War II and the holocaust, and touches the present battle going on in Israel right now with Hamas, Hezbollah, and Iran (ancient Persia).
- To understand the prophetic importance of the book of Esther we have to go back to the beginning of the Bible in the Book of Genesis and the Book of Exodus.

PURIM – THE PROPHETIC PATTERN

THE BATTLE WITH AMALEK FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION – MIDOR LEDOR

- In Genesis chapter 15 the Lord has a mysterious visitation with Abraham. Here in this passage God confirms His covenant with Abraham in a very mysterious way and credits Abraham's Faith as righteousness!
- God instructs Abraham to make a blood path with animals that are cut in half. God then passes through the split in half pieces in the form of a smoking pot and flaming torch. Here in this same account God prophesies the 400 year captivity in Egypt and then the subsequent conquering of Canaan. It's important to take note that that 400 years later God appears to the children as a pillar of cloud or smoke by day and a pillar of fire by night. The same way he appeared to Abraham 400 years prior in this account

Genesis 15:9-21

“9 He said to him, “Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.” 10 And he brought him all these, cut them in half, and laid each half over against the other. But he did not cut the birds in half. 11 And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

THE PASSEVER FORETOLD

12 As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram. And behold, dreadful and great darkness fell upon him. 13 Then the Lord said to Abram, “Know for certain that your offspring will be sojourners in a land that is not theirs and will be servants there, and they will be afflicted for four hundred years. 14 But I will bring judgment on the nation that they serve, and afterward they shall come out with great possessions. 15 As for you, you shall go to your fathers in peace; you shall be buried in a good old age. 16 And they shall come back here in the fourth generation, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete.”

17 When the sun had gone down and it was dark, behold, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. 18 On that day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, “To your offspring I give[a] this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates, 19 the land of the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, 20 the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, 21 the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites and the Jebusites.”

SETTING THE STAGE

WHO IS AMALEK?

AMALEK WAS THE GRANDSON OF ESAU (GENESIS 36:12)

According to the Bible, Amalek was the son of Eliphaz (who was the son of Esau, ancestor of the Edomites and the brother of Jacob or Israel) and Eliphaz's concubine Timna.

Timna was a Horite and sister of Lotan.

According to Jewish tradition, Timna was a princess who tried to convert to Judaism.

PURIM – THE PROPHETIC PATTERN

MOSES & THE BATTLE WITH THE AMALEK – ARMS HELD UP

- Well after the four hundred year captivity in Egypt, right on time, according to God’s promise an unlikely deliverer came on the scene, named Moses.
- Moses by God’s power and outstretched arm leads the now newly born “Nation of Israel” out of Egypt and into the wilderness.
- In the book of Exodus chapter 17, we find Israel fresh out of Egypt and they come to a place called Rephidim. Its here that Moses and the nation of Israel find themselves in a ferocious battle with a people called the Amalekites.
- This battle is so intense that whenever Moses lowered his arms the children of Israel were loosing the battle, but whenever Moses’ arms were in the air, they were winning the battle.
- Finally, Aaron and Hur come and hold up Moses’ arms and place a rock beneath him to sit on till the battle was finally won. This battle is quite remarkable, considering that just a few chapters back Pharaoh’s army is supernaturally defeated and Israel delivered. Now at the end of this account the Lord states that he will utterly blot out Amalek from under heaven, but He also states that the Lord will have war with Amalek from Generation to Generation.
- Its important to take note of this statement about how the Lord will have war with Amalek from Generation to Generation.

EXODUS 17:14-16

“Then the Lord said to Moses, “Write this for a memorial in the book and recount it in the hearing of Joshua, that I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.” 15 And Moses built an altar and called its name, The-Lord-Is-My-Banner; 16 for he said, “Because the Lord has sworn: the Lord will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.”

GIDEON & AMALEK

KING SAUL'S BATTLE WITH AMALEK

DISASTROUS DISOBEDIANCE

In the Book of Judges, about 400 years after Moses, Gideon (The least man, of the least clan, of the least Tribe – Manasseh) became a Judge over Israel through the calling of the Lord and led the Israelites in a battle against the Midianites and their ally, the Amalekites, ultimately achieving victory with a small army of 300 men against an army of 135,000.

Judges 6:1-6:

“Then the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord. So, the Lord delivered them into the hand of Midian for seven years, and the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the Midianites, the children of Israel made for themselves the dens, the caves, and the strongholds which are in the mountains.

3So it was, whenever Israel had sown, Midianites would come up; also, Amalekites and the people of the East would come up against them. 4Then they would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the earth as far as Gaza, and leave no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep nor ox nor donkey.

5For they would come up with their livestock and their tents, coming in as numerous as locusts; both they and their camels were without number; and they would enter the land to destroy it. 6So Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel cried out to the Lord.”

KING SAUL & AMALEK

KING SAUL'S BATTLE WITH AMALEK

DISASTROUS DISOBEDIANCE

- Just as the Lord told Moses here in this passage above, the battle with Amalek did continue just as He said it would.
- You see, in 1 Samuel chapter 15, another 200 years after Gideon there is rematch between Israel and Amalek.
- Now Israel is being led by her first king....King Saul.
- Saul is directed by God to destroy every last Amalekite....men, women and children....and even their livestock. They were to leave none alive.

KING SAUL'S BATTLE WITH AMALEK

DISASTROUS DISOBEDIANCE

- Just as God promised, He delivered Amalek into Israel's hands that day!
- But Saul was disobedient to the Voice of the Lord and did not destroy all of Amalek even though King Saul claimed that he did.
- Here in this Passage, Samuel the Prophet kills King Agag.....King of Amalek, whom King Saul had spared in defiance of God's command.
- Before the Prophet Samuel slays King Agag.....He prophesies that Agag would be made childless.
- This indicates two things:
  - One - That King Saul left other Amalekites alive....Including some of King Agag's descendants.
  - Two - This also indicates a coming future destruction of Amalek and King Agag's descendants.

KING SAUL'S BATTLE WITH AMALEK

1 SAMUEL 15

1 SAMUEL 15:17-23:

“So Samuel said, “When you were little in your own eyes, were you not head of the tribes of Israel? And did not the Lord anoint you king over Israel? 18 Now the Lord sent you on a mission, and said, ‘Go, and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.’ 19 Why then did you not obey the voice of the Lord? Why did you swoop down on the spoil, and do evil in the sight of the Lord?”

20 And Saul said to Samuel, “But I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, and gone on the mission on which the Lord sent me, and brought back Agag king of Amalek; I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. 21 But the people took of the plunder, sheep and oxen, the best of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice to the Lord your God in Gilgal.”

22 So Samuel said: “Has the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, As in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, And to heed than the fat of rams. 23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the Lord, He also has rejected you from being king.”

1 SAMUEL 15

1 SAMUEL 15:22-23:

22 So Samuel said:

1. Has the Lord as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, As in obeying the voice of the Lord?
2. Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, And to heed than the fat of rams. (Obedience vs Sacrifice)
3. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, (Rebellion = Witchcraft)
4. And stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. (Stubbornness = Iniquity & Idolatry)
5. Because you have rejected the word of the Lord, He also has rejected you from being king.”

SETTING THE STAGE

KING DAVID & AMALEK

DAVID'S BATTLES WITH AMALEK RUTHLESS OBEDIENCE

- So, how do we know for sure that King Saul did not kill all of the Amalekites as he said he did back in 1st Samuel 15?
- Well we find out in 2nd Samuel 1:1-25 that a number of years later King Saul is wounded in battle and an Amalekite kills King Saul on his request.
- This same Amalekite comes to David and reports the death of King Saul by his own hands and the death of Jonathan.
- David orders that this Amalekite be killed for taking King Saul's life!

DAVID'S BATTLES WITH AMALEK RUTHLESS OBEDIENCE

- We also see that David battles Amalekites in 1st Samuel chapter 27 and again in 1st Samuel 30.
- In fact its here in 1st Samuel 30 that we find out that the Amalekites had attacked David's safe city of Ziklag while he and his men were away and took all the women and children captive.
- David then pursues the Amalekites (That King Saul had claimed he wiped out) and defeat them and reclaim all of their women and children.
- The point here is that King Saul did not completely destroy Amalek as was commanded to by God. Consequently, King Saul dies at the hands of an Amalekite and looses the Kingdom, and David becomes king of Israel in his place.

KING DAVID'S BATTLE WITH AMALEK

1 SAMUEL 27 & 30

1 SAMUEL 30:1-7:

"30 Now it happened, when David and his men came to Ziklag, on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the South and Ziklag, attacked Ziklag and burned it with fire, 2 and had taken captive the women and those who were there, from small to great; they did not kill anyone, but carried them away and went their way. 3 So David and his men came to the city, and there it was, burned with fire; and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captive. 4 Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voices and wept, until they had no more power to weep. 5 And David's two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite, had been taken captive. 6 Now David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was [a]grieved, every man for his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in the Lord his God.

7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, "Please bring the ephod here to me." And Abiathar brought the ephod to David. 8 So David inquired of the Lord, saying, "Shall I pursue this troop? Shall I overtake them?" And He answered him, "Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them and without fail recover all."

ESTHER & MORDECHAI vs HAMANTHE AGAGITE

THE PROPHETIC REMATCH

- Some 500 years later, Israel has gone into a 70 year captivity in Babylon.
- Some time later the kingdom of Babylon is overthrown by Medo-Persian empire.
- This is where the book of Esther picks up with the prophesied Generational Prophetic Battle with Amalek.
- In the book of Esther chapter 2, we learn of a man named Mordechai, who was a scribe in the court of the King of Persia. In Esther chapter 2 and verse 5 we are given his family lineage:
  - “In Shushan the citadel there was a certain Jew whose name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite.”
- This lineage is crucial information. Why you might ask?

ESTHER & MORDECHAI vs HAMANTHE AGAGITE

THE PROPHETIC REMATCH

- You see Mordecai is from King Saul's family and tribe. This also means that the heroin of the story, Esther, was also from King Saul's family.
- Equally important we also learn about the Haman's (the villain of this story) lineage in Esther chapter 3 and verse 1:
  - “After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him and set his seat above all the princes who were with him.”
- Here in this verse we're provided more crucial information!
- Haman, the villain, is a descendant of King Agag....the King of the Amalekites! Here in the opening of the book of Esther, some five hundred years after King Saul, David and King Agag.....there is a PROPHETIC REMATCH between Israel and Amalek, with King Saul's descendants and King Agag's descendants.

1. ESTHER & MORDECHAI vs HAMAN THE AGAGITE

- THE HIDDEN ESTHER CIPHER – 5707 & 1946

- Well as we read through the account of Esther, we find that King Haman, filled with Satanic hatred for the Jewish people and a spirit of vengeance is promoted above all the Princes of Persia and he immediately pursues a plan of extermination of the Jewish people throughout the Persian kingdom.
- But God raises up Esther and Mordecai to thwart his evil plan.
- Ultimately, Haman’s plan is divinely thwarted and the trap he set for Israel is turned on him, his family and his allies throughout the Persian kingdom.
- In fact we find out that Haman’s and his ten sons are hung on the gallows he had erected to hang Mordecai upon. This is recorded in Esther chapter 7, where Haman is hung upon the gallows, and in chapter 9 where Haman’s 10 sons are hung upon the gallows he built. Here is the account from Esther Chapter 9:6-7:
- “6 And in Shushan the citadel the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. 7 Also Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, 8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, 9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vajezatha— 10 the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews—they killed; but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.”
- Now this is where the story gets interesting.....When you look at Esther chapter 9:7 as written in Ancient Scroll form in Hebrew.....there is a mystery that literally leaps of the page.

THE HIDDEN MYSTERY IN THE SCROLL OF ESTHER

The names of the sons of Haman in super sized print from Esther 9:7

Three letters in small print amongst the super sized text + an abnormal Hebrew letter vav - ם together equal 5707 which is a Hebrew year.

The small letters: Tav - ת, Shin - ש, and Zayin - ז, in the list of Haman's ten sons (Esther 9), with the combined numerical value of 707, are seen as a "prophetic" code hinting to the future hanging of the ten Nazis convicted at the Nuremberg trials in the year 5707, which Julius Streicher declared as "Purim-fest 1946" before he was hanged.

PURIM-FEST 1946 (5707)

Streicher and the Nuremberg “Purimfest”

Twenty-four defendants were tried at the Nuremberg trials of Nazi war criminals (Nov 20, 1945–Oct 1, 1946). Two were acquitted, eight were given prison sentences, and twelve were condemned to death. Of these twelve, Martin Bormann was tried in absentia,<sup>[1]</sup> and Herman Goering committed suicide before he could be executed. Given their military status, the ten men asked for the firing squad, but to underscore that their crimes went beyond mere military offenses, the court decided on the more common death by hanging.<sup>[2]</sup>

Telford Taylor, The Anatomy of Nuremberg Trials: A Personal Memoir (Skyhorse 1992), pp. 601-607.

PURIM-FEST 1946 (5707)

Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Kingsbury Smith<sup>[3]</sup> of the International News Service was chosen by lot to represent the American press at the executions.<sup>[4]</sup> He reported Streicher's final moments and last words as follows:

As the guards stopped him at the bottom of the steps for identification formality he uttered his piercing scream: "Heil Hitler!"<sup>[5]</sup> The shriek sent a shiver down my back... As he reached the platform, Streicher cried out, "Now it goes to God." He was pushed the last two steps to the mortal spot beneath the hangman's rope. The rope was being held back against a wooden rail by the hangman. Streicher was swung suddenly to face the witnesses and glared at them. Suddenly he screamed, "Purim Fest 1946."...

The American officer standing at the scaffold said, "Ask the man if he has any last words." When the interpreter had translated, Streicher shouted, "The Bolsheviks will hang you one day." When the black hood was raised over his head, Streicher's muffled voice could be heard to say, "Adele, my dear wife." At that instant the trap opened with a loud bang. He went down kicking."<sup>[6]</sup>

Apparently, Streicher could not help but notice the parallels of the hanging of ten Nazis and the hanging of Haman's ten sons.

THE PURIM PROPHECY & WW II

Julius Streicher as a defendant before the International Military Tribunal

Numerous commentators have noted that there is an uncanny resemblance between the hanging of Haman's ten sons in the Purim story and the Nuremberg Trials following the Second World War, when 10 Nazis war criminals were hung for the crimes against humanity that they committed. Additionally, in the Purim story, the Talmud claims that Haman's daughter committed suicide and thus didn't need to get killed, while following the Nuremberg Trials, Hermann Goring a well known Nazi cross dresser, also committed suicide and thus did not need to get hanged in Nuremberg. In fact, Julius Streicher, the Nazi editor of the anti-Semitic Das Strumer newspaper, even proclaimed before he was hung, "Purim Fest 1946."

Indeed, given all of these facts, it appears as if there is merit to the claim that there is a connection between the Purim story and the Nuremberg Trials. The Tanakh specifically states that Haman, the evil Persian Prime Minister who sought to annihilate the Jewish people, was an Agagite. Agag was the King of the Amalekites, implying that all ten sons of Haman were also part of the Amalek nation. Interestingly, the Vilna Gaon claimed that the Germans are also descendants of Amelek

A MODERN DAY HAMAN

20 January 1942: The Wannsee Conference

According to Dieter Wisliceny’s (Adolf Eichmann’s right hand man) testimony at the Nuremburg trials after World War II, Husseini was one of the Key Architects of the Final Solution and campaigned for it hard with the Nazi leadership.

Dieter Wisliceny

Adolf Eichmann

“and He (Husseini) has become a permanent colleague, partner and advisor to Eichmann...in the implementation of the Programme!”

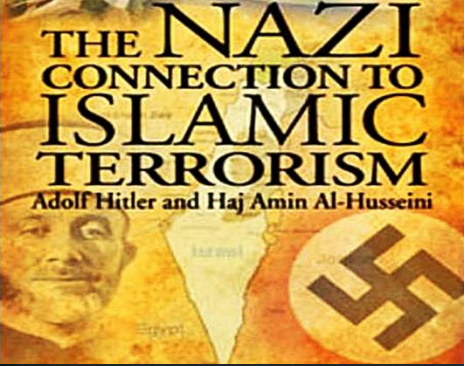

“He (Husseini) considered this as a comfortable solution of the Palestine problem. He was one of Eichmann's best friends and has constantly incited him to accelerate the extermination measures (of the Jews)!”

“According to my opinion, the Grand Mufti...played a role in the decision of the German Government to exterminate the European Jews, the importance of which must not be disregarded!”

“had repeatedly suggested to the various authorities with whom he had been in contact , above all before Hitler, Ribbentrop and Himmler, the extermination of European Jewry!”

“The Mufti is one of the originators of the systematic destruction of European Jewry by the Germans!”

THE NAZI MUSLIM CONNECTION

HAJJ AMÍN AL HUSSEINI – THE REAL ARCHITECT OF THE FINAL SOLUTION?

- Husseini was appointed as the Mufti of Jerusalem—an Islamic legal, bureaucratic, and religious office—in the early 1920s after the British defeated and destroyed the Islamic Caliphate : The Ottoman Turk Empire.
- When World War II broke out he supported the Third Reich, where his international prestige as an anti-Semitic leader earned him a royal reception.
- For the entire war he remained in the Nazi-occupied zone with the rank of a top Nazi officer, and assumed key responsibilities in the machinery of the Final Solution:
  1. Husseini was responsible for spreading propaganda to incite Muslims to murder Jews!
  2. Husseini was tasked with creating Muslim divisions of Heinrich Himmler’s SS in Yugoslavia!
  3. Husseini was tasked with administering with Adolf Eichmann the death camp system that exterminated over 6 million European Jews!
- I’ll try to show you in full context, Husseini’s path from the moment the British made him Grand Mufti of Jerusalem and assisted his anti-Jewish terrorist attacks in British Mandate Palestine, until he became a Nazi tool to destroy the European Jewish people.

After the war, the Haj Amin Al Husseini, became a respected elder and figurehead in the Pan-Arabist movement of the 1950's and 1960's. He consulted with Egyptian President and leading Pan-Arabist Nasser, and later became a young Yasser Arafat's hero and idol.

He was more than that to Arafat . Arafat's mother Hamida Khalifa al-Husseini was a cousin to the very same Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, Haj Amin al-Husseini. So Arafat was his nephew or grand-nephew and his full name was Muhammad Abdel-Raouf Arafat As Qudwa al-Husseini.

After the war, Haj Amin Al Husseini, fled Germany and headed back to Egypt. He avoided prosecution at the Nuremburg trials himself as a war criminal.

This happened because the leaders of the Arab world asked for Husseini to be granted immunity in exchange for access to oil and the establishment of allied bases in Arab lands!

FDR & COVENANT WITH DARKNESS

In February 1945, on his way home from the famed Yalta conference, President Roosevelt met King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia. On board the USS Quincy in the Great Bitter Lake of the Suez canal, President Roosevelt tried to persuade Saud to acquiesce to a plan for Jewish emigration to Palestine, but Saud was adamant in his opposition to the formation of a Jewish State in its Biblical Homeland. After Roosevelt's fateful meeting with Saud, the King sent Roosevelt a letter reminding him of his promise to block the formation of a new Jewish State in what was then called Palestine. On April 5th, 1945 President Roosevelt replied the Saudi Monarch's letter and promised King Saud that he, as president of the United States, would take no hostile action against the Arabs (IE allowing the formation of a Jewish State) and that the

TRUMAN & THE RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL

After Roosevelt's sudden passing, Harry Truman was inaugurated as the new President. Truman, unlike Roosevelt, had a strong connection with the Jewish people that started with his mother's reading scripture to him as child and his business partnership and lifelong friendship a Jewish man named Edward Jacobson. Jacobson met Truman when the two reported to basic training at Fort Sill, near Lawton, Oklahoma, with a unit of soldiers from the Kansas City area. They successfully managed a canteen together, and were thus inspired to open a haberdashery together after World War I. However, poor business decisions caused the business to fail, and the resulting debts burdened both for many years. Jacobson spent the rest of his career as a traveling salesman, which enabled him periodically to visit Truman in Washington. According to David McCullough, Jacobson had open access to the Oval Office.

Growing Trade Signals Deeper Ties Between Iran and Turkey

Sinan Ciddi
Non-Resident Senior Fellow

According to Turkish government sources, bilateral trade between Turkey and Iran increased sharply over the last six months. Although formally a U.S. ally through NATO, Turkey appears determined to deepen its economic ties with Tehran, recalling its facilitation of Iranian sanctions evasion prior to 2016.

In September, the Turkish Institute of Statistics (TUIK) reported a 49 percent increase in non-oil and gas imports from Iran in March through August 2022 as compared to the same period during the previous year. (The data is available in files posted for download on the TUIK website.) Additionally, Turkey reported a 20 percent increase in overall exports to Iran in the first six months of 2022 as compared to 2021.
