The image shows a screenshot of a news article from All Israel News. The main headline is circled in red and reads: 'Almost everything is ready for the Third Temple,' claims Israeli TV report about red heifers brought to Israel last year. A red arrow points from this headline to the All Israel News logo, which is also circled in red. To the left of the main article, there is a sidebar with a date 'MARCH 20, 2025' and the text 'RECENT ARTICLES'. Below this, there is a small image of cars and a headline: Hamas launches 3 rockets at Tel Aviv after IDF starts fresh ground offensive in northern Gaza. Below the sidebar, there is another 'MARCH 20, 2025 RECENT ARTICLES' section. The main article text below the headline includes the sentence: 'Arrival of the heifers continues to cause excitement and consternation in the Jewish community.' Below the text, there are social media sharing icons for Facebook, X, WhatsApp, and others. At the bottom of the article, there is a photo of several brown cows in a stable.

On the Hamas-owned "Al-Aqsa" program, Dr. Ahmad Shihab said the heifers were proof that "the Israeli government has a plan to cause a religious war in the region, and the settlers state religious claims regarding the Jews' right to al-Aqsa mosque."

The Palestinian News Network also ran a story last week accusing the Israeli government of plotting with settlers to reconstruct the third Temple and "storm Al-Aqsa."

Know therefore and understand that from the going out of the word to restore and build Jerusalem to the coming of an anointed one, a prince, there shall be seven weeks. Then for sixty-two weeks it shall be built again with squares and moat, but in a troubled time. And after the sixty-two weeks, an anointed one shall be cut off and shall have nothing. And the people of the prince who is to come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its end shall come with a flood, and to the end there shall be war. Desolations are decreed. And he shall make a strong covenant with many for one week, and for half of the week he shall put an end to sacrifice and offering. And on the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate, until the decreed end is poured out on the desolator.”

The Return of the Temple During the Tribulation

In the New Testament Jesus (Yeshua), The Apostle's Paul and John all speak of a future time when there will be a third Temple who the Anti-Christ will defile:

Matthew 24:1-51: Jesus, while leaving the temple, foretells its destruction, along with other events leading up to the end times.

Matthew 24:15: Jesus warns about the "Abomination of Desolation" (from Daniel) standing in the holy place, a reference to the defilement of the future temple during the tribulation.

2 Thessalonians 2:3-4: This passage warns against deception and describes the "man of lawlessness" (the Antichrist) taking his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God.

Revelation 11:1-2: This passage mentions measuring the temple of God and the altar, but not the outer court, which is given over to the nations, and they will trample the holy city for 42 months.

Revelation 21:22: This verse states that in the New Jerusalem, there will be no temple, as the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb will be its temple

The New Testament Foretells the Return of a Third Temple

In 2 Thessalonians 2:1-12 (NKJV) the Apostle Paul gives one of the most vivid descriptions of the coming Temple and Anti-Christ:

“Now, brethren, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to Him, we ask you, 2 not to be soon shaken in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as though the day of Christ had come. 3 Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of [b]sin is revealed, the son of perdition, 4 who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you, I told you these things? 6 And now you know what is restraining, that he may be revealed in his own time. 7 For the [d]mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. 8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. 9 The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, 10 and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, 12 that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.”

The New Testament Foretells the Return of a Third Temple

Matthew 24:1-14 - Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?”

4 And Jesus answered and said to them: “Take heed that no one deceives you. 5 For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will deceive many. 6 And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for [a]all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. 7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, [b]pestilences, and earthquakes in various places. 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 “Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for My name’s sake. 10 And then many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another. 11 Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many. 12 And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold. 13 But he who endures to the end shall be saved. 14 And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

The New Testament Foretells the Return of a Third Temple

Revelation 11:1-2 - Then I was given a measuring rod like a staff, and I was told, “Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship there, but do not measure the court outside the temple; leave that out, for it is given over to the nations, and they will trample the holy city for forty-two months.

REBUILDING THE THIRD TEMPLE

The Temple of Solomon was filled with the music of 4,000 harps and a remarkable couple have been on a lifelong journey to return that music in time for the Third Temple. Praise Hashem with the lyre; with the ten-stringed harp sing to Him. (Psalms 33:2)

They recently released a video depicting the long-awaited fulfillment of the Psalm; a Jewish child returning to Israel removing a harp from a willow where her forefathers had hung it upon going out into exile.

RETURN OF THE BIBLICAL HARP

- This amazing story began in California about eighteen years ago among a young Jewish couple, Shoshanna and Micah Harrari.
- Shoshanna had a desire for a small lap harp, very different from the classical harp that most people are familiar with.
- In the past she had tried other instruments, but nothing had seemed right for her. Four years later, the Harraris made aliyah to Israel.
- They discovered a drawing of a small harp from a cave located at Megiddo. The drawing dated back 3,500 years. From this drawing Micah, who was a guitar maker, began to fashion Shoshannas lap harp. At the time the Harraris were living at Tiberias.
- Their yard had a lemon tree and one hot day a neighbor came to pick the lemons.
- Invited in for a drink of water, she noticed Micahs harp, then under construction.
- This lady happened to be a journalist for the Jerusalem Post and began a story on the Harrari harp.
- Her research revealed that the harp was the Biblical harp known as the Nevel and had not been made for almost two thousand years.

THE RETURN OF THE SANHEDRIN

REBIRTH OF THE SANHEDRIN

On Feb. 9th 2005, just a few weeks after the Sanhedrin's re-establishment, another enormously important development took place.

"Jesus before the Sanhedrin," a painting by Jacques Tissot

The religious sages began to consider the rebuilding of the Temple and reinstatement of ancient animal sacrifices as prescribed in the Law of Moses.

On October 13, 2004, the Sanhedrin Council of the Jewish nation was reconstituted for the first time in 1,600 years. The ceremony took place in the Israeli town of Tiberias, located on the western shore of the Sea of Galilee. This was the site of the council's last meeting in the year 425 AD.

This incredible development, largely ignored by the press, appears to be one more step toward the construction of a Jewish temple in Jerusalem.

MOLY TEMPLE EDWARD PROPHECY ARABISMS THE TEMPLE HISTORY THIRD TEMPLE

A significant step was recently taken towards reinstating the Temple service when the nascent Sanhedrin selected Rabbi Baruch Kahane as the next Kohen Gadol (high priest). The selection was made as a precaution for Yom Kippur. If the political conditions should change, allowing the Jews access to the Temple Mount, they will be required by Torah law to bring the sacrifices. Rabbi Kahane is confident that if that should happen, Temple service could begin in less than one week.

The Return of the Cohanim

The Cohen Modal Haplotype (Y-Chromosomal Aaron)

Today Jewish people with the last name or Sur-name of Cohen, Kuhn, Cahn, Kahn, Kohen, or Colon are considered to be descendants of Aaron the brother of Moses, the first Priest or Cohen of Israel.

Y-chromosomal Aaron is the name given to the hypothesized most recent common ancestor of the patrilineal Jewish priestly caste known as Kohanim (singular Kohen, also spelled Cohen).

According to the Hebrew Bible, this ancestor was Aaron, the brother of Moses.

The original scientific research was based on the hypothesis that a majority of present-day Jewish Kohanim share a pattern of values for six Y-STR markers, which researchers named the extended Cohen Modal Haplotype (CMH).[4] Subsequent research using twelve Y-STR markers indicated that nearly half of contemporary Jewish Kohanim shared Y-chromosomal J1 M267 (specifically haplogroup J-P58, also called J1c3).

A 2,000-year old textile containing a mysterious blue dye described in the Bible has been uncovered in Israel.

The cloth, which displays one of the few remnants of the ancient colour ever found, was dyed using a snail known as the Murex trunculus.

The gland of this sea-snail secretes a yellow fluid that, when exposed to sunlight, turns purple-blue and can be used to dye cloth.

Large Mizrak

The mizrak, (Exodus 27:3), is used to gather the blood of the offering, and to spill it onto the corner of the altar, as is commanded by Torah. The large mizrak is used when slaughtering larger animals, (cows and bullocks).

The bottom of the mizrak forms a point in order that the vessel cannot accidentally be set down, allowing the blood to congeal, which would nullify the offering.

The mizrak is made of either silver or gold.

Golden Incense Altar

It is a positive commandment to offer incense twice daily upon the Golden Incense Altar, (207:22), which stands in the Kodesh Sanctuary of the Holy Temple. It is considered to be the most beloved among the commandments performed by the kohanim, and imparts great blessing to the kohen who performs it. As per Exodus 30:2, the Golden Altar is one cubit in length, one cubit in width, and 2 cubits in height. It is made from wood overlaid in gold. The Golden Altar of the Tabernacle was made of Acacia wood. The Golden Altar in the Holy Temple built by King Solomon was made of Cedar wood. The Golden Altar made by the Temple Institute is likewise made of Cedar wood, overlaid with gold.

Oil Pitcher

The Golden Oil Pitcher is used by the kohen to replenish the oil of the seven Menorah lamps. The pitcher contains 3.5 log, approximately 2 liters, enough oil for all seven lamps. The pitcher's design is based on a depiction on an ancient coin from the Second Temple era.

Copper Meal Offering Vessel

The copper vessel is designed for carrying the meal offering up to the top of the great stone altar where it is then opened and the offering is thrown onto the altar fire. The meal-offering contains specially prepared semolina wheat, mixed with olive oil, kneaded and baked into a thin unleavened "pan." Olive oil is poured over the meal offering and grains of frankincense are placed on it. As he ascends the altar ramp, the kohen steps to pick up salt placed on the ramp for this purpose and sprinkles salt upon the offering.

The Lottery

On Yom Kippur a lottery was conducted to determine which goat was to be offered to HaShem, and which goat would be the scapegoat, sent to Azazel. The kohen gadol is flanked on his right by his deputy, and, on his left, by the head of the priestly family on duty.

Small Mizrak

The small mizrak was used to collect the blood of the Passover offerings being made by festival pilgrims in the Temple's inner courtyard. Two rows of kohanim formed. In one row they used a silver mizrak, in the other, a golden mizrak. They passed the blood-filled mizrak from one kohen to the next. When the mizrak reached the final kohen, standing closest to the altar, he would dash the blood against the altar, in accordance with the Torah commandment.

Wine Libation Vessel

The wine libation, (נסיון), is an integral part of every offering. A flask of consecrated wine is brought up to the top of the inner altar by a kohen, who pours the wine into a small vessel placed at the southwest corner of the altar. The receiving vessel has a small spout through which the wine trickles down the side of the altar. When the wine libation takes place the Levitical choir begins to sing.

Golden Table of the Showbread

The Golden Showbread Table stands along the northern wall of the Kodesh Sanctuary. The table contains twelve shelves which hold twelve loaves of bread. Once a week, on Shabbat, two kohanim enter the Kodesh and replace the twelve loaves of Showbread with twelve new loaves. At the same time two other kohanim enter carrying two portions of Frankincense to replace the two sections currently resting of the Showbread Table. As the Torah instructs in Exodus 25:23-30, the table is made of wood, covered with gold.

Each Temple vessel restored by the Temple Institute is kosher for use in the soon to be rebuilt Third Temple, made according to the exact requirements and specifications of Biblical law. <http://www.telegraph.co.uk/news/worldnews/10287615/The-rabbi-the-lost-ark-and-the-future-of-Temple-Mount.html>

“This isn’t the real lost ark,” he says. “The real one is hidden about a kilometer from here, in underground chambers created during the time of Solomon.” I look at him askance. “It’s true,” he says. “Jews have an unbroken chain of recorded information, passed down from generation to generation, which indicates its exact location. There is a big fascination with finding the lost ark, but nobody asked a Jew. We have known where it is for thousands of years.”

The rabbi, the lost ark and the future of Temple Mount

In Jerusalem, rabbis are designing a new hi-tech temple. There’s only one problem: they want to build it on the holiest place in the city for Muslims

“An attempt was made some few years ago to excavate towards the direction of this chamber. This resulted in widespread Moslem unrest and rioting. They stand a great deal to lose if the Ark is revealed - for it will prove to the whole world that there really was a Holy Temple, and thus, that the Jews really do have a claim to the Temple Mount.”

The Copper Scroll Project

One of the Scrolls found among The Dead Sea Scrolls was a scroll written on Copper.

It's believed that Jeremiah may have written this scroll.

It details the location of Temple Treasures and the High Priests Garments & the original Ephod.

It references another special scroll written on Silver that was never found.

The Copper Scroll Project

Oklahoma Fire Arson Investigator and Biblical Hebrew Hobbyist was the only one to figure out and rightly interpret the 60 locations on the scrolls.

Several members of the Sanhedrin and the Israeli Knesset believed Jim's interpretation.

Jim & a Member of the Knesset used a special metals detector from the US and confirmed 59 of 60 locations detailed in the Scroll

The Rabbi, the Note and the Messiah

Thursday, May 30, 2013 | Aviel Schneider

Recommend (5.6k) Tweet (18) (8+1) 28

This is a reprint of a cover story that first appeared in the April 2007 issue of Israel Today Magazine

A few months before he died, one of the nation's most prominent rabbis, Yitzhak Kaduri, supposedly wrote the name of the Messiah on a small note which he requested would remain sealed until now. When the note was unsealed, it revealed what many have known for centuries: Yehoshua, or Yeshua (Jesus), is the Messiah.

With the biblical name of Jesus, the Rabbi and kabbalist described the Messiah using six words and hinting that the initial letters form the name of the Messiah. The secret note said:

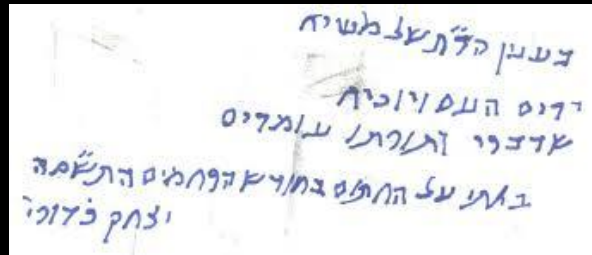

Concerning the letter abbreviation of the Messiah's name, He will lift the people and prove that his word and law are valid.

THE RETURN OF THE NEED FOR A BLOOD COVERING - ATONEMENT

The Jewish people once again recognize the need for a blood covering.

This has led to the institution of the practice of Kapparot, some Orthodox Jews wave a chicken over their heads before Yom Kippur, symbolizing a transfer of sins, and then slaughter the bird according to Jewish law.

Kapparot (Hebrew: כפרות, meaning "atonements") is a customary ritual practiced by some Orthodox Jews on the eve of Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

The ritual involves waving a chicken over one's head, reciting a prayer, and then slaughtering the Chicken according to Jewish law. Some believe that the sins of the person are transferred to the bird, and by sacrificing it, they are absolved of those sins.

SANHEDRIN

On Monday, the last day of Hanukkah, the Sanhedrin called out to the 70 Nations to join in the consecration of the altar for the Third Temple. A full-dress reenactment of the daily sacrifice was held and a representative of a South American nation who attended was the recipient of a miraculous fulfillment of the Messianic promise of the ingathering of the exiles.

After months of intensive study, the Sanhedrin ordered a stone altar built, scheduling its dedication to take place on the last day of Hanukkah just outside the walls of the Old City of Jerusalem.

In October of 2017 the Sanhedrin re-enacted the mitzvah of announcing the New Year, at the same time they were actually fulfilling the commandment of announcing the new year in the Jubilee cycle.

Two years ago, the Sanhedrin ruled that conditions for the prophesied Third Inheritance of the land of Israel had been fulfilled.

Letter from the Nascent Sanhedrin to President Donald J. Trump

Jerusalem, Wednesday, February 12, 2025

Dear Honorable President Donald Trump,

May Hashem, the Creator, bless you and your nation!

We extend our heartfelt gratitude for bringing faith to the forefront of American and global culture through the establishment of the Faith Office in the White House. Your recognition of the importance of religion in public life is a step toward restoring moral values and spiritual leadership in the world.

The Universal Moral Code

The Book of Genesis has a profound message of unity and divine purpose for humanity through three fundamental principles:

1. One God – To recognize the cause of all causes (Genesis 1:1).
2. One First Man – To affirm the basic equal rights of humanity (Genesis 1:26).
3. One Basic Law – To establish universal principles of justice (Genesis 2:16).

Without a constructive moral framework, humanity descends into violence and destruction, as exemplified by Cain's murder of Abel (Genesis 4:8). Every nation has unique strengths and resources, yet no nation is self-sufficient. Without a Universal Ethical Common Code, people resort to war and oppression to obtain what they need. With such a code, nations engage in spiritual commerce and a race for virtue.

The First Commandment and the Seven Laws of Noah

- The first time the word "commandment" appears in the Bible is when Hashem commanded Adam:
"And the Lord God commanded the man, saying: Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat." (Genesis 2:16)
This verse alludes to the seven universal laws that form the foundation of ethical behavior for all humanity. These laws reflect seven of the Ten Commandments.

- These ethical principles were reaffirmed at Mount Sinai when Hashem revealed Himself to the world, and our ancestors witnessed this divine event.

- The Jewish, Christian, Muslim and all monotheistic traditions recognize the divine revelation at Mount Sinai as a foundational moment in history.

- When Hashem gave the Children of Israel the Torah, He provided an ethical standard for the entire world. This standard is known as the Seven Commandments of Noah, which form the basis of universal morality.

- When a person accepts the Seven Noahide Laws, they receive divine blessings:

1. A Neshama (Soul) – The soul that animates the body and connects a person to Hashem.
2. Righteous Among the Nations – A person who upholds these laws is considered righteous and honored before Hashem.
3. A Share in the World to Come – Those who follow these principles merit a place in the hereafter.

Enclosed with this letter, we have included the Universal Ethical Common Code (UECC), which outlines the benefits of adopting the Seven Commandments of Noah.

The Role of Ethics in Business

A businessman who commits to being Honest and Good in the Eyes of Hashem will seek trustworthy partners.

- Who would he prefer to do business with? An atheist who may cheat and deceive? Or someone committed to Hashem, who upholds honesty and integrity?
- A business owner will seek to hire workers who are loyal and committed to the success of the enterprise.
- A worker will prefer to work for an employer who ensures fairness and ethical treatment.

By aligning economic relationships with divine morality, business and ethics become intertwined, fostering prosperity and trust.

The Cyrus-Trump Coin and Your Historic Role

In 2017, the Nascent Sanhedrin minted a special coin featuring your image on one side and Cyrus the Great on the other. This symbolized your historic role, likened to that of Cyrus, who was chosen by Hashem to fulfill a divine mission.

The Chinese appreciated this idea so much that they reproduced and sold millions of copies of these coins and other products featuring your image alongside Cyrus the Great.

You have been elected, as Cyrus was in his time, to fulfill a heavenly mission:
To unite all believers in God and foster ethical cooperation across all spheres of human activity.

A Call to Establish an International Divine Court – IDC.

We invite you to meet with the Sanhedrin Court Rabbis in Jerusalem to discuss the establishment of an International Divine Court (IDC) for all nations. This court would be based on the seven universal commandments given to Noah and reaffirmed at Mount Sinai—a foundation for global peace and divine justice.

May Hashem bless you with wisdom, strength, and success in your divine mission.
